

My shadow has a mum and dad,

While I just have a memory.

My shadow plays with other children,

While I hide in the shadows.

My shadow is safe,

While I am always in danger.

My shadow has a home,

While I sleep on bricks.

My shadow lives in Poland,

While I do not know where I am.

My shadow has friends,

While I am hated.

My shadow is happy,

While I lay in fear.

My shadow is long gone,

While I am still here.
