The Georgia Commission on the Holocaust, in cooperation with University of North Georgia College of Education, presents a free two-day professional development workshop for educators.

“Holocaust education addresses one of the central mandates of education in the United States, which is to examine what it means to be a responsible citizen.” – United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

The workshop will provide educators with resources and pedagogical approaches to teach about the Holocaust.

The workshop is free of charge and includes books and resources from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Educators will receive certification of contact hours. Reimbursement is available for substitute pay.

The workshop is open to educators of grades 5 and up, such as classroom teachers of any discipline, school administrators, curriculum coordinators, and media specialists.
